Dr. Desai, a practicing foot and ankle surgeon and CMIO at Houston Methodist, is an experienced physician executive who has led many physician driven implementation, optimization, and large scale IDN and ambulatory EHR conversions. His primary interest in IT is to maximize adoption by hardwiring efficiency tools and processes to enhance the physician workflow.