Angie Mendoza, MS, RN-BC, CPHIMS

Angie Mendoza is a Sr. System Analyst at Sharp HealthCare in San Diego. Her eighteen-year nursing career includes caring for postpartum women; well, transitional, and premature newborns; and Informatics. Her involvement in Informatics began in 2003. In 2010, Angie began working full-time in nursing informatics. She is now part of the Cerner Clinical Team in Information Systems at Sharp HealthCare. Angie completed her Bachelor in Nursing at San Diego State University in 1997 and her Master’s degree in Clinical Informatics and Patient-Centered Technologies at University of Washington in 2011.